

LOCAL BREVITIES.

City taxes become due and payable next Monday.

Democrats hold a meeting at Cartwright tonight.

Two trains, loaded with California fruit, passed through Maricopa, yesterday.

A team loaded with supplies at Goldman & Company's for the Vulture Mine yesterday.

Judge Kibbey will be in Phoenix next Monday for the purpose of hearing applications for naturalization.

The artist who painted the sign for the Democratic Headquarters must have neglected the orthographical part of his education.

There was Democratic speaking at Cartwright last night. Among those who went from Phoenix were ex-Governor Zula, L. H. Chalmers, Frank Cox and W. T. Smith.

L. N. Large and J. K. Allen came in last evening from the Castle Creek mine. The company have just completed the erection of a ten-stamp mill and started it to work Wednesday.

The Supervisors yesterday allowed the bill of the Arizona Gazette for printing notices, in the sum of $150, allowed a number of minor accounts, and received the resignation of Reuben Baxter, Overseer of Road District No. 13.

George Barnard yesterday received a letter from Boulder Rock, near Sacaton, saying that William Johnson had been caved in on in his mine at that place and that all efforts so far have not availed to secure his release.

Goldman & Company had on display, yesterday, some native gold brought from Stanton, Yavapai county, and dust from Tip Top, in all about $500 in weight. This is the commodity that pays and that the sand of Arizona is full of.

M. E. Hurley has purchased the meat market of Clapp & McWilliams, known as the Marlow market. The shop has been neatly fitted up, and it is the intention of the new proprietor to keep none but the best of meats. Mr. Hurley is well known and will succeed without a doubt.

A letter from the Way Up mine, on Antelope Creek, owned by Barnard & Gering, gives an encouraging report of progress in development, and states that free gold is to be found at every place in the workings. This is destined to be one of the great properties of the Southwest.

All persons wishing a supply of German carp should at once leave their requisitions with Elmer Conting, Commissioner of the Mills House. The fish car will be in this city some time during November and it is essential that the Commissioner should know how large a draft he is expected to make upon the supply.

The Arizona Gazette Company filed a suit in the District Court yesterday against the Electric Light and Gas Company, of Phoenix, a corporation, to enjoin the defendant from depriving plaintiff of gas lights as per certain contract made between the parties. The Gas Company claims that its bills have not been paid, and have taken out the meter attached to the premises.

A. T. Marsh, who is superintending the construction of the Phoenix and Prescott toll road, came in last evening from the scene of labor. Mr. Marsh says he will have the road completed toward the latter part of next month. He has at present forty-three men at work, and will increase the force to 100 right away. The energy that has been displayed in this enterprise reflects much credit upon the projectors.

At a special meeting of the Fire Department last evening, a committee of five, composed as follows: H. H. McNeil, of the hook and ladder company, Joe Alexander, engine, Gus Clark, Pioneer hose, W. Scott Yucates, and Chief Czarowski, were appointed to extend courtesies to the visiting companies during fair week. Company B, First Infantry, N. G. A., were tendered the use of Firemen's Hall while the Armory is occupied by exhibitors.

Paris despatches from Pondicherry, capital of the French settlements in India, say that a serious election conflict has taken place there between a mob and the police. Several have been wounded on both sides and the military has been ordered out.

THE BRADSHAW ROAD.

Superintendent Marsh Directed to Employ a Greatly Increased Force.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Phoenix and Prescott Toll Road Company was held this afternoon in the Valley Bank, at which the following directors were present: Colonel Masten, Henry E. Kemp, E. J. Bennett, T. J. Trask, D. E. Keating, M. Jacobs and A. J. Marsh, at which Superintendent Marsh was instructed to increase his working force now engaged on the road to 100 men. Mr. Marsh thought with this force he would be able to open the road for through travel in November.

There is no doubt but this will be one of the finest roads in the Territory. The Crowned King mine, realizing the importance of this outlet from the Bradshaws, have a large gang of men already at work cutting a new road to connect with it. Others are following their example. Tip Top has also caught the fever and is agitating for more perfect communication with Phoenix. Ere two months more have elapsed the farmers of Salt River Valley will have begun to feel the benefit of this new enterprise.

JOINT DISCUSSION.

Invited Between the Republican and Democratic Nominees.

Phoenix, Arizona, October 9, 1890. M. H. Williams, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Maricopa County:

Sir, I have the honor, on the part of the Executive Committee of the Republican party of this county, to propose a series of appointments (not less than three) for joint discussion between the candidates for the Council named by their respective parties, Hon. R. C. Powers and Hon. C. Meyer Zula, upon the issues that naturally arise in their candidacy before the people of this county at the forthcoming election. The discussion to take place at the earliest day practicable.

N. A. Morford, Chairman.

J. L. Wood, Secretary.

Miss Granger's Engagement.

There is already a large demand of seats for the Maude Granger engagement though the sale does not open till tomorrow morning. Her coming is anticipated with pleasure and the fact that her engagement, which is an unusually extended one, will present her in three of her strongest plays is a matter of additional interest. A feature of the engagement will be the strong supporting company she will bring with her which will include Harry Mainhall, Frank Kelly, Chas. H. Mestayer, C. Gray, Harry French, the Misses Estha Williams, Carrie Elberts, Jennie Elberts, Little Baby Parker and others. The opening bill will be "The Creole" to be followed by "Camille" and "Inherited."

An Unpleasant Official.

County Supervisor Charles Slankard and James Raney had a dispute in Luke & Czarowski's last night about 8 o'clock which created some excitement for a time. Raney was aggravated to lift a chair with the evident purpose of smashing it over Slankard's head, when the Supervisor drew an ugly looking "shooter." The men were parted, but later Slankard did some gun flourishing and was arrested by Marshal Blankenship. A hard struggle was necessary to tow Slankard to the City Prison. He showed a fight and in order to quiet him the Marshal had to rap him rather roughly on the arms and head. As it was, Blankenship's shirt was nearly torn from him.

A Sad Bereavement.

Mrs. Sampson, wife of a gentleman lately from Eugene, Or., was buried from their residence on Monroe street yesterday.

The couple had only been married a few months, and had come to Phoenix for the benefit of Mrs. Sampson's health. A little girl 5 years of age is left motherless, and a husband has had broken the most sacred tie of life. (God's purposes are inconceivable. Death divides affections and leaves its chill in every heart some time in life. There is no consolation, but "In the night of death hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing."

SOUTH CAROLINA POLITICS.

TARIFF LITERATURE FOR ALL.

THE AMERICAN PROTECTIVE TARIFF LEAGUE is publishing a most valuable series of tariff documents. These are prepared with a view to state the facts and arguments for Protection, whether in the interest of farmers, laborers, merchants or professional men.

Each issue of the series appeals to those engaged in separate industries, and presents indisputable facts—comparisons of wages, cost of living, and other arguments showing the benefits of Protection.

Any single one will be sent on receipt of 2 cents in stamps except "Wages, Living and Tariff," which will be sent for 4 cents. The whole set will be sent for 30 cents or any twelve for 20 cents, or any five for 10 cents, postage paid. Order by number.
